New priorities

Contribution to Access

Strengthening Regional Innovation &
Manufacturing

Promoting regional production and innovation is essential to improve health security and reduce global supply chain vulnerabilities

Establishing Regional Supply Agreements for Rapid Response

Enhance preparedness and response capacities through early access to Medical Counter Measures

Creating a Regional Stockpile/Hub

Alleviating supply chain disruptions in emergencies and reducing transportation costs

Actions Approved to Address New Priorities

Flexible Use of the Capital Accounts

Use of up to 15% of the Capital Accounts only after all credit line requests from countries are secured

- Prepayments, volume guarantees, and innovative financing instruments to incentivize regional manufacturers or regional supply agreements for rapid response.
- Prepayments for the creation of a Hub or Regional stockpile for critical products in crises

Flexible Contributions to the Capital Accounts

2.5% Capital Account Contribution exemption on Products from Regional Manufacturers

- More competitive prices for Member States (MS) from regional manufacturers to stimulate Local Production and promote self-reliance

2.5% Capital Account Contribution exception for large volumes of high-cost products

- Attracting countries with bigger volumes to generate economies of scale. The proposed exemptions benefit all Member States regardless of their income or size.

Implementing Actions

The Line of Credit will be the priority

Aligned with mandate and priorities

Beneficial to all Member States

To be implemented in procurement processes & tools
